Footnotes on data capture for Finance Portal
- Multilateral Contributions NC5-

Party	Footnotes (Multilateral Contributions NC5)
Australia	► The values reported are Australia's financial contributions to multilateral institutions and programs for 2004–09. ► Australia reported contributions for period 2004-2009 (five financial years). Contributions are listed for each of those financial years. The Australian financial year is from 1 July to 30 June. ► Figures for 2004–05 based on an average exchange rate of AUD 1 = USD 0.7524 (Source: Reserve Bank of Australia Statistics for 2003–2006). ► Figures for 2005–06 based on an average exchange rate of AUD 1 = USD 0.7477 (Source: Reserve Bank of Australia Statistics for 2003–2006). ► Figures for 2006–07 based on an average exchange rate of AUD 1 = USD 0.7857 (Source: Reserve Bank of Australia Statistics for 2003–2006). ► Figures for 2007–08 based on an average exchange rate of AUD 1 = USD 0.8968 (Source: Reserve Bank of Australia Statistics for 2007–2009). ► Figures for 2008–09 based on an average exchange rate of AUD 1 = USD 0.7477 (Source: Reserve Bank of Australia Statistics for 2007–2009). ► Figures for Energy Sector Management Assistance Program are only showing proportion of funding estimated for renewable energy or energy efficiency. ► Figures for Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change are based on an average exchange rate, 2004–05: AUD 1 = CHF 0.9115; 2005–06: AUD 1 = CHF 0.9555. ► A proportion of funding to Secretariat of the Pacific Regional Environment Program is used for climate change related activities.
Austria	► The values reported are climate change relevant financial contributions to multilateral institutions and programmes. ► Austria reported contributions for period 2005-2008. Contributions are listed for each of those years. ► Payments to UNFCCC Trust Fund are voluntary contributions to various trust funds, NWP etc.
Belgium	► The values reported are ODA contributions by Belgium to the international financial institutions (rounded figures) and Belgian ODA attributable contributions to the European institutions (rounded figures). ► Belgium reported contributions for period 2004-2008. Contributions are listed for each of those years. ► Contributions for EU Budget are excl. EDF.
Canada	► The values reported are financial contributions to multilateral institutions and programs. ► Canada reported contributions for period 2005-2009 (Four fiscal years). Contributions are listed for each of those fiscal years. ► Contributions for Least Developed Country Expert Group (LEG) do not include Canadian member. ► Contributions for Least Developed Country Group (Support for 2009 Negotiations) was reported as bilateral contribution but was included under multilateral in database. ► Contributions for UNFCCC Supplementary Fund were reported as support for Copenhagen. ► Additional information can be viewed in section "Other Data".

Party	Footnotes (Multilateral Contributions NC5)
Denmark	► The values reported are Danish disbursement to multilateral institutions, NGO's and programmes working with climate-related activities. ► Denmark reported contributions for period 2005-2008. Contributions are listed for each of those years. ► Reported other volentary contributions include contributions to IPCC, IUCN, IISD, WRI, IIED, ITTO, UNCCD, Global Mechanism, GWP, ECOWAS, 92-gruppen, CBD, Care, IWGIA/ICC, AFREPREN, GBIF. ► Figures for United Nations Development Programme incl. contributions for Dryland Development Center, PEI and Greenland dialogue. ► Figures listed for World Bank incl. contributions for Environment analysis/PRSP, WSP, ESMAP, IWRM (water), African Stockpiles Programme, COM+ Alliance and WDR 2013. ► Figures for United Nations Environment Programme incl. contributions for Montreal Protocol, none ear-marked contributions. ► Additional information can be viewed in section "Other Data".
European Union	► The values reported are financial contributions to multilateral institutions and programmes. ► The European Union reported contributions for period 2004-2007. Contributions are listed for each of those years.
Finland	► The values reported are financial contributions to multilateral institutions and programmes. ► Only part of the contribution is related to climate change. ► Finland reported contributions for period 2004-2008. Contributions are listed for each of those years. ► Additional information can be viewed in section "Other Data".
France	► The values reported are financial contributions to multilateral institutions and programmes. ► France reported contributions for period 2005-2008. Contributions are listed for each of those years. ► Report does not specify whether the IFC contribution is a subcomponent of the World Bank contribution or an additional contribution. ► Additional information can be viewed in section "Other Data".
Germany	► No data on financial contributions to multilateral institutions and programmes provided.
Greece	► The values reported are Greece's overall ODA-eligible financial contributions to multilateral institutions and programmes. ► Greece reported contributions for period 2006-2008. Contributions are listed for each of those years. ► Figures reported under Other Multilateral Institutions, Funds, and Programs include contributions for Black Sea Trade and Development Bank, Black Sea Economic Cooperation, etc. ► Figures reported for World Bank include contributions for IDA, MDRI, IBRD, IFC and MIGA. ► Additional information can be viewed in section "Other Data".

Party	Footnotes (Multilateral Contributions NC5)
Iceland	► The values reported are Iceland's Official Development Assistance (ODA). ► Iceland reported contributions for period 2006-2009. Contributions are listed for each of those years. ► Data provided for year 2009 are preliminary. ► Figures reported under World Bank Group - Avian flu were merged with World Bank Group in database. ► Figures reported under FAO Icelandic Specialist Icelandic Specialist were merged with Food and Agriculture Organization in database. ► Figures reported under World Bank Group-Icelandic Consultant Trust Fund were merged with World Bank Group-International Finance Corporation in database. ► Figures reported under OECD Public Debt Initiative were merged with Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development in database.
Ireland	► The values reported are financial contributions to multilateral institutions and programmes. ► Ireland reported contributions for period 2006-2008. Contributions are listed for each of those years. ► In table header currency used in table is given as USD, in cells some contributions are reported in Euros. ► Currency for contribution to Other Multilateral Institutions, Funds, and Programs (Caribbean Climate Risk Insurance Fund) in 2007 was assumed to be USD, although this was not specified in table. ► Figures reported under World Bank refer to contributions from IDA 13 and IDA 14. ► Contribution to Trust Fund for Participation was reported as GEF-contribution and moved to multilateral contributions. ► Payments listed under United Nations Environment Programme were reported as UNEP (PEI). ► Additional information can be viewed in section "Other Data".
Italy	► The values reported are financial contributions to relevant multilateral institutions and programmes. ► Italy reported contributions for period 2006-2008. Contributions are listed for each of those years. ► Figures reported under other regional banks and special funds were merged with other multilateral institutions, funds, and programs.
Japan	► The values reported are contributions to multilateral institutions and programs. ► Japan reported contributions for period 2004-2008. Contributions are listed for each of those years. ► The amounts reported are for the Japanese accounting year (from April to March of the following year). ► The amounts reported represent the total initial budgetary provision for contributions to specific multilateral financial institutions, or other institutions, not the amounts used for areas related to climate change. ► The amounts listed for United Nations Development Programme represent contribution only for regular resources. UNDP's focus areas include energy and environmental issues.
Luxembourg	► The values reported are for multilateral cooperation ► Luxembourg reported contributions for period 2006-2008. Contributions are listed for each of those years. ► Reported IBRD contribution includes GEF/CGIAR ► Additional information can be viewed in section "Other Data".

Party	Footnotes (Multilateral Contributions NC5)
Netherlands	► The values reported are environment-related financial contributions within ODE ► The Netherlands reported contributions for period 2005-2008. Contributions are listed for each of those years. ► Contributions to Readiness Fund were originally reported under GEF contributions but are presented in bilateral section. ► Contributions reported as contribution to the Desertification treaty were merged with contributions to United Nations Convention to Combat Desertification in database. ► 10 % within total reported contribution to International Fund for Agricultural Development are environment-related expenditures. ► 30% within total reported contribution for World Bank Partnership Fund are environment-related expenditures. ► 5% within total reported contribution to IDA and regional development banks are environment-related expenditures. ► 5% within total reported contribution to European Development Fund are environment-related expenditures. ► Additional information can be viewed in section "Other Data".
New Zealand	► The values reported are financial contributions to multilateral institutions and programmes. ► New Zealand reported contributions for period 2005-2008. Contributions are listed for each of those years. ► Annual contributions cover calendar years, except for UNFCCC Least Developed Countries Fund and UNFCCC Trust Fund for Supplementary Activities, which cover financial years (July–June). ► Contributions represent the full amounts provided to the organisation for the full range of activities covered by their programmes, which include climate change mitigation and adaptation. ► Over 2005 to 2008, the value of 1 NZD has fluctuated between = 0.49 and 0.81 USD.
Norway	► The values reported are support for selected environmentally related initiatives sorted by contracting party and title. ► Norway reported contributions for period 2005-2008. Contributions are listed for each of those years. ► The reported figures show actual contributions. Contributions to the relevant funds/initiatives may also be categorized under other contracting parties and thus not be included in this overview. The genuine expenditures may therefore be larger than shown in the table. The table is based on filtering of "Agreement partner" in addition to text searches. ► Additional information can be viewed in section "Other Data".
Portugal	► The values reported are Portugal´s multilateral contributions to Part I organisations (ODA) and Part II (OA) of the DAC /OECD. ► Portugal reported contributions for period 2001-2007. Contributions are listed for each of those years. ► The values reported are contributions to Part I organisations (ODA) and Part II (OA) of the DAC /OECD. ► Additional information on multilateral contributions can be viewed in section "Other Data".
Spain	► Footnote in Spanish: Resumen de las contribuciones realizadas de Ayuda Oficial al Desarrollo en materia de Cambio Climático 2005-2008. ► Spain reported contributions for period 2005-2008. Contributions are listed for each of those years. ► Report was submitted in Spanish. All Organization names were translated to official English names when possible. ► Additional information on multilateral contributions can be viewed in section "Other Data".

Party	Footnotes (Multilateral Contributions NC5)
Sweden	► The values reported are payments to multilateral institutions and other relevant organisations and institutions. ► Sweden reported contributions for period 2004-2008. Contributions are listed for each of those years. ► The SEK/USD exchange rate used for conversion in the report was the rate on 11 December of respective years. ► Figure for UNFCCC Core Funding for year 2004 is contribution for Convention. ► Figure for UNFCCC Core Funding for year 2005 is total; 0.16 USD million of which are contributions for Conv.; 0.07 USD million of which for KP. ► Figure for UNFCCC Core Funding for year 2006 is total; 0.15 USD million of which for Conv.; 0.10 USD million of which for KP. ► Figure for UNFCCC Core Funding for year 2007 is total; 0.15 USD million of which for Conv.; 0.12 USD million of which for KP. ► Figure for UNFCCC Core Funding for year 2008 is total; 0.18 USD million of which for Conv.; 0.13 USD million of which for KP. ► Figures for World Bank Group incl. IBRD, IDA, IFC, MIGA.
Switzerland	► The values reported are financial contributions to multilateral institutions and programmes. ► Switzerland reported contributions for period 2005-2008. Contributions are listed for each of those years. ► Contributions listed under Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development were reported under OECD Climate Change. ► Contributions listed under United Nations Industrial Development Organisation - Cleaner Production Centers were reported under UNIDO: Cleaner Production Centres (CPC), metrology and standards. ► Contributions listed under United Nations Institute For Training and Research were reported under UNITAR (climate change, environmental law). ► Contributions listed under World Bank Climate Funds were reported under World Bank Climate Funds: CF Assist; Forest Carbon Partnership Facility. ► Additional information can be viewed in section "Other Data".
United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland	► The values reported are financial contributions related to the implementation of the convention. ► The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland reported contributions for period 2005-2009 (Four fiscal years. Contributions are listed for each of those fiscal years). ► Contributions for Centre for Clean Air Policy were reported under Bilateral and regional financial contributions related to the implementation of the convention for Research and Knowledge Dissemination; Funding is for research into low carbon growth policy frameworks in developing countries; Global contribution (China, India, Brazil). ► Contributions for Climate Change Adaptation in Africa were reported under bilateral and regional financial contributions related to the implementation of the convention for Research and Knowledge Dissemination; Ccontributions for five year research and capacity development programme in Africa to help African researchers and policy makers to identify practical ways that rural and urban people adapt to climate change; contribution to region Africa. ► Contributions for Climate for Development were reported under bilateral and regional financial contributions related to the implementation of the convention for Research and Knowledge Dissemination; contributions were used to improve information on the impacts of climate change across Africa; contribution to region Africa. ► Contributions for Centre for Climate and Development - DFID were reported under bilateral and regional financial contributions related to the implementation of the convention for Research and Knowledge Dissemination; contributions were used for to design a centre which will deliver a suite of service (knowledge management, research and tailored advice) to support developing country policy making; year of contribution given as 'from 2009'; Global contribution.

Party	Footnotes (Multilateral Contributions NC5)
United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland (continued)	► Contributions for FCO were reported under bilateral and regional financial contributions related to the implementation of the convention for Research and Knowledge Dissemination; Development of UK attaches network for climate change and energy and appointed a UK security Envoy for vulnerable countries; global contribution. ► Contributions listed for Inter-American Development Bank were reported as contributions for Inter-American Development Programme. ► Contributions for Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change&UNFCCC were reported under bilateral and regional financial contributions related to the implementation of the convention for Research and Knowledge Dissemination; Annual contribution enabling developing country participants to attend meetings'; Global contribution. ► Contributions for World Bank were reported under bilateral and regional financial contributions related to the implementation of the convention for "Other vulnerability assessments"; Economics of Adaptation Work with Netherlands Switzerland and bank. To help inform UNFCCC negotiations; Global contribution (Bangladesh, Vietnam, Ethiopia, Mozambique, Ghana and Bolivia. ► Contributions for UNFCCC funds include contributions for SCCF, LDCF and other voluntary funds. ► Contributions for International Climate Change Subscriptions International climate change subscriptions inc. UNFCCC; per calendar year. ► Contributions for International Finance Corporation were reported as International Finance Corporation (PEP MENA) contributions.
United States of America	► The values reported are annual U.S. financial contributions to multilateral institutions ► The United States of America reported contributions for period 2005-2009. Contributions are listed for each of those years. ► The U.S. government provides direct funding to multilateral institutions and programs in support of sustainable economic development and poverty alleviation. Although in many cases a portion of this funding supports climate change activities, it is not currently possible to identify that amount. Therefore, the reported figures represent total U.S. government contributions to these multilateral development institutions and funds, including amounts not directly attributable to climate change activities. The figures present U.S. funding to multilateral programs that can be directly attributed to climate change activities. ► OAS Development Assistance Programs, World Trade Organization Technical Assistance, International Civil Aviation Organization, International Contributions for Scientific, Educational, and Cultural Activities and World Meteorological Organization Voluntary Co-operation Programme also receive assessed contributions through the Contributions to International Organizations account. ► Some figures were reported as voluntary contributions from International organizations and programs. Please refer to report for details. ► Figures reported under World Meteorological Organization Voluntary Co-operation Programme were included under World Meteorological Organization in data base ► Figures reported under World Trade Organization Technical Assistance were included under World Trade Organization in data base. ► Figures reported under UN Development Fund for Women & UNIFEM Trust Fund were included under U.N. Development Fund for Women in data base. ► Figures for Contributions to the GEF were double reported under Multilateral contributions and under GEF contributions. Figures from table 7-2 (Multilateral Contributions) were not captured. Figures for GEF contributions for 2005 and 2006 from table 7-2 do not agree with figures given in table 7-1 (GEF contributions). ► Additional information can be viewed in section "Other Data".